Read the story below and answer the questions that follow.

An old lady lived with her son, daughter-in-law and a five-year old grandson. They would eat together at the dining table. As the old lady was weak, once in a while she would accidentally break the rice bowl and eat messily.

One day, her daughter-in-law could not stand the way she ate anymore. So, the daughter-in-law set a small table at a corner of the dining room. She served the old lady's food in a wooden bowl. The old lady was told to eat alone. Her grandson watched in silence.

One evening, the grandson was playing with wood scraps. His father asked him, "What are you making?" He replied, "I'm making two wooden bowls for you and mother to use when you are old."

His parents were shocked by his reply. They realised that they had mistreated the old lady. From that day onwards, the old lady ate every meal together with her family at the dining table.

At the canteen, two students are having their meal.

Jamal : Good morning, Yen!

Yen : Good morning, Jamal. What have you brought for your breakfast today?

Jamal : My mum has prepared some sandwiches and fresh milk. What are you having for your breakfast?

Yen : I am having noodles and soya milk.

Jamal : Full cream fresh milk is my favourite!

Yen : I don't really like fresh milk, but my mum always advises me to drink it.

Jamal : Really. Why? My mother tells us that milk is very nutritious. It contains both calcium and protein which is good for our bones and teeth. Besides, it also contains vitamins, such as vitamins B1 and B2.

Yen : I don't like the smell though, but seems like it gives us a lot of nutrition. Maybe I should try drinking it.
