Questions 16 to 20

Read the story below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Long ago, all the animals were able to talk to one another in human language. This gift was given by the Goddess Artemis. However, Artemis forbidden them to use this gift to talk to man.

A grizzly bear noticed a short old man walking with a small pouch in his hand. He quickly snuck away from his group and followed the man. Later the bear even took the man to a place where the animals gathered. Being over excited, the animals started to talk to the man.

The news came to Artemis' knowledge and she was very furious.

" YOU HAVE DISOBEYED ME!! I GAVE YOU SUCH A GREAT GIFT AND THIS IS HOW YOU REPAY ME?!!!" screamed Artemis.

" I'm sorry, Artemis, but the human is" answered the bear.

" SILENCE!!! You have disobeyed me, so everyone's gift will be taken away! " screamed Artemis even louder.

She clicked her fingers and the animals were unable to speak in human language again.

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

A long time ago, there was a man named Yatim living in a village called Kampung Asam Jawa. He longed to marry the daughter of the village chief but his marriage proposal was rejected because he was poor. He was heart broken and left for Kuala Selangor. He then worked for a merchant. He was hardworking. The merchant liked him very much and let him marry his daughter. He was appointed captain of a ship and came to be known as Nakhoda Yatim.

One day, a man called Syeikh Maulana came and board Nakhoda Yatim's ship and told him he was once stranded on a shore of a remote island full of treasures. Nakhoda Yatim asked Syeikh Maulana to bring him to the island and promised to give him half of the treasures as a reward.

When they arrived at the island, Nakhoda Yatim took all the treasures and reluctantly gave Syeikh Maulana one ship of treasures. However, greed began to overwhelm him so he took back all the treasures.

Among the treasures was a copper box. Syeikh Maulana told him there was an ointment in that box. If Nakhoda Yatim applied the ointment on his right eye, he could see all the treasures hidden in the oceans, caves and under the ground. Syeikh Maulana reminded him never put the ointment on his left eye or something terrible would happen. Nakhoda Yatim immediately applied the ointment on his right eye, he felt a sudden pain, but to his delight, he saw all the hidden treasures. Greed began to overtook him so he applied the ointment on his left eye too. All of a sudden, all he could see was darkness...
